Spirit of Enterprise Launches Alumni for Successful Singapore Entrepreneurs

SOE celebrates its fifth year of community service with the launch of the SOE Alumni; Its official partner for this event is Credit Suisse

Singapore, 22 August 2007 - The Spirit of Enterprise (SOE) today launched its Alumni with its partner Credit Suisse. The Alumni, which is made up of award winning entrepreneurs from the past 5 years, will serve as a forum for networking and for the members to create business opportunities within the group.

“We are confident that the creation of the Spirit of Enterprise Alumni will provide a meaningful platform for our members who are distinguished entrepreneurs, to develop useful and rewarding relationships based on mutual recognition and sharing of success. We also hope the Alumni will leverage this forum also to inspire Singapore’s youths into following in their footsteps in the years ahead”, said Henry Tan, President, Spirit of Enterprise.

Ms Jullie Kan, Managing Director, Market Head, Singapore and Malaysia, Private Banking, Credit Suisse, said “Credit Suisse is delighted to be the partner of the Spirit of Enterprise in the launch of their Alumni. Credit Suisse was founded in a strong spirit of innovation and entrepreneurship more than 150 years ago. We have had a long tradition of serving entrepreneurs and have fostered a deep appreciation of their needs for personal and business success. We see a special resonance in supporting initiatives that promote the spirit of entrepreneurship and are pleased to partner with the SOE in this important initiative for the entrepreneur community in Singapore.”

At the event, Dr Nilanjan Sen, Associate Professor of Nanyang Technological University presented the SOE Executive Development Programme, which is designed for the Small and Medium Enterprises (SMEs). The programme is supported by SPRING, Singapore.

The alumni members are encouraged to join in promoting entrepreneurship through the Student-Entrepreneur Programme by providing mentorship to the schools projects, funding their programs and sharing of their experience.
